Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claim 1-4, drawn to polypeptide having phosphoglycerate mutase activity, classified in class 435, subclass 193.
- II. Claim 5-10 and 18, drawn to DNA encoding the polypeptide of Group I, classified in class 536, subclass 23.2.
- III. Claim 11-13, drawn to a method of screening for a compound that binds to the polypeptide of Group I, classified in class 435, subclass 15.
- IV. Claim 14-15, drawn to method of screening for a compound that alters the activity of polypeptide of Group I, classified in class 435, subclass 15.
- V. Claim 16-17, drawn to the antibody specific for the polypeptide of Group I**, classified in class 424, subclass 139.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II and V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions; represent structurally different chemical compositions that have different biological functions.

Invention I and inventions III and IV are related as product and processes of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the product, the polypeptide can be used in a materially different process such as production of antibodies.

Inventions II, and III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions, DNA encoding the polypeptide, a method for identification of a substance that binds to the polypeptide or alters its enzymatic activity are not disclosed as capable of use together.

Inventions III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are two different methods that are not disclosed as capable of use together.

Inventions III, IV and V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are antibodies and two different methods that do not use said antibodies and have different steps and effects and are not capable of use together.

Art Unit: 1652

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, and the literature and sequence searches required for each of the Groups are not required for another of the Groups or these searches are not coextensive, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).
